

ASDMA in association with Department of Secondary Education, Govt. of Assam and SCERT, Assam conducted the three-days Training programme of DIET Lecturers as “Master Trainer” under the National School Safety Policy (NSSP):

Shri Pritom Saikia, IAS, Commissioner and Secretary, Education Department, Assam yesterday inaugurated the Three-days Training programme of DIET Lecturers as “Master Trainer” under the National School Safety Policy (NSSP) at State Institute of Health & Family Welfare, Assam, Khanapara, Guwahati with the participation of 78 lecturers across the State which is organised by the Department of Secondary Education, Govt. of Assam in collaboration with Assam State Disaster Management Authority (ASDMA) and SCERT, Assam. These Master Trainers will be District level Resource Persons for training of School Focal Point Teachers (SFPT), Headmasters and Principals, BRCC, CRCC etc. The training will be completed on 12th September 2019.

Some snapshots of the Training programme are given below:

